The New Romantics

Corporate 80s Band

Presenting pop music at its finest, New Romantics are one of Australia's most in-demand corporate bands. Presenting a high energy show, New Romantics capture the sounds and essence of the world's top selling and most successful 80s artists.

With a powerful rhythm section, scorching guitars, a dynamic front man and three part vocals, there's not a tune New Romantics can't cut. With a mixture of incredible sequencing, programming and live performance, New Romantics recreate the best of pop music from ABC to WHAM!

One of the most experienced bands around, New Romantics have played between innings at international cricket matches, at the Australian Grand Prix, and to crowds of thousands at many outdoor events and festivals. They have also entertained intimate crowds, such as Pat Rafter's US Open title winning party and at the Opening Night Party of the musical Chicago.

Adaptable to any type of event, New Romantics extensive repertoire can also be augmented with hits from the 70s and the 90s. Working closely with clients, New Romantics devise a play list to create the atmosphere and fun to suit your event.

New Romantics were formed in 1993 by guitarist/vocalist David Pagano and bassist Angelo Granozio. Their extensive client list includes Telstra, Microsoft, Myer, Triple M, Shell Australia, Morgan & Banks and The Commonwealth Bank.

Client testimonials

> "Wow, everyone was blown away by the New Romantics, they were absolutely perfect for this event and fitted the style and theme seamlessly. The dance floor was packed from the first song and it stayed that way all night! What a totally polished and professional act.
