

Adam Mada

Showman, Magician, Inventor & Host

Adam Mada is an entertainer, MC, speaker, artist, ABC TV's resident magician for Studio 3 and one of Australia's most sought-after showmen. As well as headlining festivals, cruise ships and the corporate stage, Adam is constantly producing fresh, funny and dynamic live shows to astonish his audiences.

Mada stands at the front line of contemporary magic without turning his back on the golden era of grand illusionism. His explosive performances ensure that there's only ever one word on everyone's minds ... awesome.

He's exhilarated the Myer family, levitated Jeff Fenech, and become the basis of a character in Siren, a Tara Moss bestseller - just a few reasons why he is in such demand both nationally and internationally.

Mada has dropped the jaws of audiences from everywhere from the Sydney Opera House to Las Vegas, consulted on or appeared in high-rating television shows (Ready Steady Cook, The Real Hustle, Australia's Got Talent) and critically acclaimed feature films (Sleeping Beauty), and energised festivals, cabarets, charity events and grand class cruise-ships. He's dazzled a Kerry Stokes-hosted, Kevin Rudd-attended private garden party, and made Justin Hemmes miraculously appear before a 600-strong crowd at the notorious Merrivale CEO's Ivy Ballroom. His endless list of satisfied corporate clients include The Myer Family, BMW, Coca Cola, Microsoft, Apple, LG, Samsung, Google, Facebook, the 'big four' banks and the NRL.

Among his many other achievements, Adam Mada is involved in Starlight Children's Foundation as National Magic Coach for the Captain Starlight Program, as Coach, Producer and Creative Director for the Australian Junior Magic Champions 'CARDISTRY' and is a member of Band Of Magicians - the world's first supergroup of magicians. He is also magician in residence at experimental cabaret show El Circo.

Whether wowing high-end, private parties or massive-scale corporate events, Adam mixes his signature blend of wit, spectacle and invention and delivers the slickest of interactive experiences, stealing away the breath of each and every audience member and keeping it safely up his sleeve until the final curtain.

For entertainment that is thrilling, fantastical, fresh and unquestionably unique, Adam Mada is a brilliant choice to bring cutting-edge entertainment to your function or event.
