Hilarious comedian, brilliant impersonator, unforgettable MC

Ben Price is an internationally renowned comedian and, without doubt, one of Australia's finest impersonators.

Ben has mastered more than more than 100 voices and written comedy sketches impersonating elite athletes, musicians, politicians and film stars. On any given day he could be Kevin Rudd, Borat, Jamie Oliver or Ian Thorpe. He also has a list of original characters including the hilarious Tim Tam from Vietnam, Karay Singh, the Indian 7-11 worker and Borris Nickoff, the Russian cabbie - not to mention the hoax characters he devises to suit specific corporate audiences.

Ben Price has performed all over Australia, Hong Kong, China, Singapore and Europe for major companies including AMP, Australia Post, Ford, Hewlett Packard, IBM, Mercedes Benz, National Australia Bank, Qantas and Telstra.

Client Testimonials

Ben came in as a bumbling English Nurseryman and confused the life out of the professionals in the industry. He even managed to get them asking questions before revealing his true identity. He has his characters down to perfection. He was excellent!

Nursery and Garden Industry of Victoria

Your show was brilliant and our customers have said how much they enjoyed your impersonations and jokes. I've no doubt you are Australia's best impersonator and we would highly recommend you to anyone.

Bistech Pty Ltd (Brisbane)

Ben was very funny and the research he did on our industry was very good. I would recommend him.

Audi

At first as we came around the corner we actually thought it was Matt Preston standing there. The makeup, voice, gestures were all so spot on! Matt...I mean Ben would have no problems fooling a crowd that he was there as a special guest judge at any conference. We've now seen Ben as Dr Phil, Borat (personal favourite), Arnie and now Matt Preston and it still amazes us how he is the one person under all of these terrific characters!

Professionals Real Estate

Absolutely sensational! Everyone had a fabulous evening and would recommend Ben for any event if they are looking for the Wow factor.

Microsoft

I just wanted to let you know that the event on Friday was a success and how I can't speak highly enough of Ben – not only was he personable and a pleasure to have at lunch, he was an amazing entertainer. In the 6 years I've been organising the event, I have never had so many people so happy with the choice of entertainer. All I can say is that he was brilliant and I wish him every success.
