

Brian Doyle

Multi-award winning corporate stand up comic

Brian Doyle is considered by many to be Australia's most outstanding corporate stand-up comedian. He has been awarded the Australian Male Comedian of the Year six times, as well as being named Best Comedy Artist by the Variety Club. An Irishman of immense charm, Brian's professionalism and the respect he has in the industry are unquestioned.

Brian Doyle performs as a stand-up comic almost exclusively in the corporate sector. With his trademark warmth and whimsical style, he is renowned as the amiable Irishman with the weight of the world on his shoulders. His hilarious tales cover all avenues of life - politics, sport, religion - no subject is sacred, as he interacts and entertains audiences.

Brian's comedic talents have taken him into television as both a performer and a writer. His writing credits include The Logies, The Don Lane Show, Ernie Sigley's Tonight Show and The Bert Newton Show.

He has made over 400 appearances on TV as a stand-up comic including The Big Gig and a stint as guest compere on The Midday Show. Brian has acted in many local TV series, including a sustaining role in the soap opera The Restless Years. He has appeared before four Australian Prime Ministers and one magistrate, compared five Lord Mayor Command Shows and has played every major venue in Australia supporting numerous international artists including Glen Campbell, The Osmonds and Neil Sedaka. On radio, Brian has hosted his own programme and also won the Golden Stylus Award for radio commercials.

Brian Doyle is Australia's most in demand and successful corporate comic. Ideal for launch events, lunches, dinners, seminars and conferences. He loves interacting with audiences and guarantees you will recommend him to friends.
