

Cameron Williams

Television Personality, MC and Presenter

Cameron Williams is the charmingly cheeky sports anchor for National Nine News Sydney.

He also brings his charms to corporate Australia as a popular MC and presenter.

Born in Emerald, Queensland, Cameron's journalism career began in 1984 with a cadetship at the Courier Mail newspaper in Brisbane.

From there Cameron moved to The Australian newspaper where he wrote sports features and columns before joining the Seven Network in 1988.

Apart from his main role as Seven News presenter, Cameron Williams also hosted the 11am timeslot program Sportsworld and the 1992 Barcelona Olympics where he called Matt Ryan's equestrian double gold for Australia.

In 1996, he signed as the face of Fox Sports for five years, anchoring NRL on Fox, the Dally M Awards, Super 12 Rugby, Wimbledon, Winter Olympics, the Australian Motorcycle Grand Prix and Fox Sports news.

Cameron was the breakfast announcer at 2HD Newcastle before joining Channel Nine's Today Show in January 2006.

With the Nine Network, Cameron has covered Nine's horse racing, delivered guest reports on 60 Minutes and fronted the Vancouver Winter Olympics in 2010, as well as Nine's coverage of the 2012 London Olympics. Cameron also reported on one of Australia's biggest national disasters - the 2010 Queensland flood crisis - along side Today Show's, Karl Stefanovic.

After ten years with with the Nine Network, Cameron took over Ken Sutcliffe as sport presenter for Nine News Sydney while regularly filling in on the Today Show.

In his downtime, Cameron loves to spend time with his wife Natasha and two kids Arkie and Remy and says life is busy but very enjoyable.

Client Testimonials

Cameron Williams provided an insight into the thinking of some of our most loved and well known sporting hero's and shared with us the importance of a broader social responsibility.

Sumo Events

Very friendly, cheerful and charismatic! Cameron chatted to everyone and made sure the audience were having a good time.

Tabcorp Queensland

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE ▶