

Darryl Pike

Successful businessman, property consultant & corporate educator

Darryl Pike is a successful businessman, property consultant and corporate educator to numerous financial institutions and public companies. Combining sound business advice with his own success story, Darryl's presentations are entertaining, informative and relevant.

For twenty-five years Darryl was involved in financial services as Managing Director and share holder of Hattersley Maxwell and Bridgeport Advisers and asset managers, which included stockbroking, merchant banking, financial planning and business advisory. He was awarded Financial Advisor of the year by his peers and authored the best-selling book The Apprentice Millionaire. For 12 months he was the financial commentator for Channel 10's Monday to Friday program.

After selling his advisory company to a major Life Insurance group Darryl turned his attention to training business owners and employees via workshops on correct business and personal planning with profits as the objective.

His client list includes: JB Were, Westpac, McDonalds Australia, Million Dollar Round Table, Prudential Life, NRMA, National Insurance Brokers, Australian Medical Association, Tower Life and Schwarzkopf Pty Ltd.

Darryl is married, has two great grown up kids and lives on Sydney's Northern Beaches. His passions are his farm, ocean sailing and historic car rallying.

Darryl Pike talks about:

- If you're not the lead dog, the view never changes
- You can't see clearly with sweat in your eyes.
- How to increase your income without getting a rise.
- Building the profitable financial planning practice
- Marketing Financial Services

Also an accomplished master of ceremonies, compere and facilitator, Darryl's unique experience, together with his ability to entertain, makes him ideal for any event.

Client Testimonials

Darryl Pike certainly enhanced the overall event. The delegates response to his session 'Are You Making the Right Personal Investment Decisions' has been extremely positive.

Housing Industry Association

Darryl ran an outstanding seminar. He was just the right spark for people to make a start in managing their own finances and future prosperity.

McDonalds Australia

Darryl Pike's presentation was brilliant, extremely worthwhile and sincere, the best I have heard in 26 years in the industry.

JBWere Investment Management

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE ▶