

Girls on Film

A dynamic show celebrating Hollywood's biggest stars

Girls on Film is a fast-paced, slick and classy production that celebrates Hollywood's biggest stars and brings you the greatest hit songs ever put to film.

Three of Australia's finest performers deliver a fresh, new high-impact show designed to hit your event with a bang, and leave it with a wink and a smile. This winning combination is currently wowing audiences around Australia.

With classic ballads, high-powered dance tracks and stunning medleys, this sensational show is guaranteed to engage your guests and give them the most memorable night. Girls on Film delivers entertainment, excitement and sheer excellence and is easily tailored to your event. It is perfect as a conference opener, closer or as your featured dinner performer.

About the Girls:

Danielle Barnes has appeared in over 16 major musical theatre productions, from flying through the air as one of the Divas in Priscilla Queen of the Desert, singing Phantom of the Opera with Anthony Warlow to disco dancing with Marcia Hines in Oh What a Night. Add to that countless concerts and corporate events and you have the consummate entertainer!

Rachael Beck ran away from the circus when she was 15 to perform in the musical Cats, then became a household name as Sam in Hey Dad. One of the most in-demand performers in Australian show business, she has starred in many of our most successful musicals including Le Miserables, Singing in the Rain and Cabaret. Hugely popular in Channel Seven's singing show, It Takes Two, Rachael has been described as the perfect entertainer.

Mandy Carnie is one of the most dynamic and glamorous performers in Australia today. She has performed with Tina Arena, Kelly Abbey and Simon Gallagher, and played lead roles in shows including The Mikado, Cats and Grease. With the power of Shirley Bassey and the grace of Ginger Rogers, Mandy's performances stay with her audiences long after the event is over!

Client Testimonials

These girls have it all, incredible talent, beauty, class and wit ... Together, they delivered a dynamite show ... Great entertainment.

Hugh Jackman

What an awesome night and fantastic performance that Girls on Film gave us at our Alfred Davidson Awards Night. The singing was fantastic and such wonderful costumes, your entertaining elements made sure everyone had so much fun. Thank you again for making our high achievers feel very special.

Westpac

From the time these ladies hit the stage, the audience was captivated and entertained by a wonderful, contemporary repertoire delivered by amazing voices. Their tongue-in-cheek routines and audience participation rounded out this show beautifully and engaged each and every audience member.

Theme Park Events and Entertainment

These girls are the best in the business ... Girls on Film has it all, great vocals, sophisticated choreography and stunning costuming all coupled with the girls' natural charisma. This is one of the best shows I've seen in many years.
