

Jane Doyle

Seven News Presenter SA

Jane Doyle is Adelaide's most experienced and respected television newsreader, with nearly 40 years' experience as a print, radio and television journalist.

Jane's media career started when she left the Queensland Education Department where she'd taught special education and took up a newspaper cadetship in far north Queensland in 1980.

In 1981 Jane moved with her husband Ian to SA where she worked for The Recorder newspaper in Port Pirie and ABC Radio station 5CK as a casual announcer until 1983 when the couple moved to Adelaide.

Jane returned to print journalism with a two and a half year stint as TV Week's Adelaide Bureau Chief before joining ABC Radio Adelaide in 1986. This led to her appointment as the chief morning newsreader for ABC Radio as well as many other journalistic and announcing roles.

In 1986 Jane took on the additional role as relief news presenter for ABC TV and in 1988 was appointed weeknight newsreader for the ABC in SA.

Jane left the ABC in 1989 to join Seven News and has continues in that role while undertaking a wide range of other broadcast duties for Seven Adelaide.

From 2005 until 2012 Jane also worked as part of Adelaide's number one breakfast radio team on 1395 5AA.

In 2009 Jane was named Australia's Best AM Newsreader at the Australian Commercial Radio Awards in Sydney.

Jane is highly respected and much sought after for her work as an MC, guest speaker, facilitator and interviewer at corporate and community events large and small.

In August 2012 Jane was appointed Chair of Carclew and is currently Patron of Flinders Foundation and an Ambassador for Impact 100 SA.
