

Kellie Sloane

Business Leader, Media Personality, MC & Keynote Speaker

Kellie Sloane is a recognised Australian business leader and the former CEO of Life Education NSW/ACT - Australia's largest non-Government provider of health education for children. She is also well known as a broadcaster, having hosted Channel Nine's Nightline over 14 years and co-hosted the Today Show.

With excellence in business growth, innovation in technology and operations, Kellie Sloane was recognised as a finalist in the 2017 Telstra Business Woman of the Year awards.

Kellie is in demand as a keynote speaker who shares her fascinating journey from TV studio to successful CEO and advocate for children's health.

Quick thinking, vivacious and armed with a great sense of humour, she is comfortable with small groups or crowds of thousands. As a facilitator she can cut to the heart of the issue and help your event 'stay on message'. Most of all, Kellie Sloane is a people person - she loves the opportunity to work with a crowd - and it shows!

More about Kellie Sloane:

Kellie Sloane has an extensive background in media - hosting some of the country's most recognisable news and entertainment programs. She was the anchor of the Nine Network's flagship national evening news bulletin, Nightline, as well as day-time news bulletins. She was both a newsreader and co-host of Today Show. She is also familiar to Channel 7 audiences, having been fill-in host of all morning and daytime news bulletins including Sunrise, Weekend Sunrise, The Morning Show and Daily Edition.

With hands on expertise in media, Kellie ran a media/stakeholder relations consultancy and is a graduate of the AICD.

As a business leader and CEO of Life Education NSW/ACT, Kellie is respected for her expertise and interest in business growth, coupled with innovation in technology and operations. As such she has travelled to Israel on a female leader's trade mission to look at their start-up culture and tech industry.

Kellie is a seasoned MC, keynote speaker and facilitator. She has hosted wide ranging events, from Symphony Under the Stars with 60,000 people, to intimate events of 100 guests. She is at ease in front of business crowds, as well as women's lunches, political forums and celebrity events.

Kellie lives in Sydney and has three school-aged boys.

Client Testimonials

We would love to be involved in other events with you. You are the perfect Bazaar girl!

Harpers Bazaar Diamond Guild Awards

I just wanted to say a HUGE thank you for your involvement in the lead up to and at the NSW Australian of the Year Awards presentation. Through your professionalism you created a relaxed and warm atmosphere for all of the award recipients and guests, and your friendly and humorous personality was very appropriate for such an event. Feedback I have received has been very positive from all accounts.

NSW Australian of the Year Awards

Kellie did a fantastic job, she was extremely well received by the audience, highly professional and an absolute pleasure to work with. We will definitely be using her again the future.

Vanilla Bean Events

Her strong speaking talent, professional yet personal delivery and quick wit all combined in her being a presenter that the audience warmed to and paid close attention to her message about the Ray of Hope.

Expat Events (Breast Cancer Institute, Ray of Hope fundraiser)

You have my heartfelt thanks and gratitude in helping me assist those that need that help.

Jerry Lewis, 'Up close and personal with Jerry Lewis'

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE ▶