

Mick Meredith

Versatile stand up comic

Mick Meredith is one of Australia's most versatile comedy performers and has established himself over the years as a popular and successful funny man.

Mick can perform his standup show or write specific material as he has done for many clients in the past. His experience in the corporate arena started back in the 90's performing comedy, walk around magic and even the odd clown show. Mick's writing for the Footy Show, film and other areas has moulded him into a top rate corporate performer.

Mick can work clean or get down and dirty. He can perform to six year olds up to 106 year olds. As a dad and former council worker, painter, postie, clown, rockstar, he knows how to connect with people from all walks of life. His corporate clients have included: Melbourne Storm, Bunnings, Furama Hotel, Australian Appliance Association, channel Nine and Westmead Children's Hospital.

More about Mick Meredith:

Mick cut his teeth in the musical world, playing in bands in his early teens then a detour into magic and clowning and finally switching to stand up comedy in his 30s.

His experience in all these genres of entertainment have made him an all-round performer, a tradesman of comedy and he can blend all his skills into one huge show, a big fat comedy buffet with all the trimmings.

Mick's style has been described as laidback and cheeky with plenty of laughs and applause, a bloke you'll laugh at onstage and want to have a beer with afterwards.

Mick has headlined all over Australia and beyond including appearances at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival, Auckland Comedy Festival, Adelaide Fringe, Port Moresby Yacht Club, Sydney Comedy Festival, Wild West Comedy Festival (Perth), P and O Cruise ships, Kuwait U.S Army Base, Cyprus United Nations headquarters and the Roo Bar in the Sinai desert on the border of Israel and Egypt where he got the troops from all over the world laughing and raising their glasses at his Aussie humour.

Mick has appeared on film, TV and radio including The Footy Show, Mornings with Kerri Ann, Ten HD's Thursday Night Live, Joker Poker, The Fat, LG, Picnic, KFC and aapt commercials, Stand-up Australia, Triple M, The Sydney Cracker Festival Gala and feature films Bloody Hell and Footy Legends with Anh Do, Peter Phelps and Claudia Karvan.

Whether MCing, doing stand-up or singing and playing guitar. Mick's razor sharp and loveable wit will have you laughing from start to finish and always delivering a top shelf comedy show.

Be it a pub, club, function or festival, Mick will get the job done with plenty of smiles, toe tapping and belly laughs.
