

Natalie Gruzlewski

Television host & MC

Natalie Gruzlewski is a natural. She's a natural beauty, a naturally talented TV Presenter and naturally engaging corporate host.

Natalie studied journalism at Griffith University, she then got her foot in door at Channel Nine, reporting, presenting the weather and later anchoring the news. She went on to further broaden her skills by reporting and then hosting Saturday Extra.

Natalie quickly became a national rising star with her open, relaxed, personable style and killer smile. She continued to be rewarded with various presenting roles and established a national identity as Lady Luck on The Footy Show. She shared her point of view on 20 to 1, appeared on The Price is Right, Millionaire, and sang her heart out on The Singing Bee.

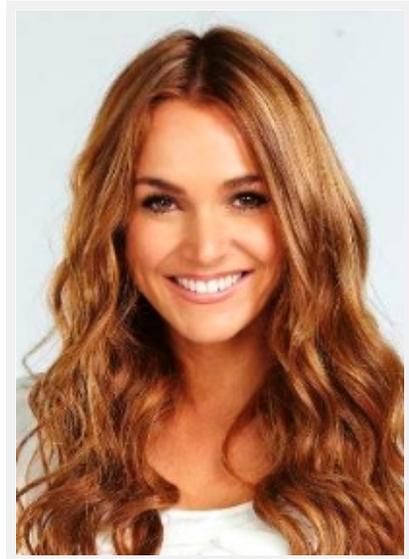

Natalie Gruzlewski spent three New Years Eve's co-hosting with Richard Wilkins live from the Sydney fireworks. She also reported live from New York for a Getaway special.

In 2004, Natalie joined Getaway and became a much loved member of the team, reporting from some of the world's most exciting destinations. In 2007, she landed the host role of the popular true love series The Farmer Wants A Wife.

Complimenting her presenting roles, Natalie is an accomplished MC and is the Ambassador for Marina Mirage, featuring in their award winning print campaign. Natalie is also an Ambassador for Canteen and Genes for Jeans.

In 2010, she continued to travel the globe in search of adventure for Getaway. In contrast to her jet-setting lifestyle, Natalie returned to host the fifth series of The Farmer Wants A Wife. It is a role that has endeared her in the hearts of viewers, and showcases her empathetic and sensitive interview skills.

In 2010, Natalie returned to her roots as weather presenter for Nine News Sydney, as well as continuing as a regular fill-in, for the co-host role on Weekend Today with Cameron Williams.

Natalie hosted the television series 'When Love Comes to Town' in 2014.

Complementing her presenting roles, Natalie is an accomplished MC and is the Ambassador for Marina Mirage, featuring in their award winning print campaign. Additionally, Natalie is Ambassador for Canteen and Genes for Jeans.

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE ▶