

Shelley Craft

Television presenter, MC & corporate host

Shelley Craft is one of Australia's sunniest, most loved television personalities. As host of Australia's Funniest Home Videos and co host of the series Domestic Blitz with Scott Cam, she has captured the hearts of families throughout the country.

As a corporate MC, she brings a natural warmth, style and grace to every event.

More about Shelley Craft:

Shelley Craft's television career began with her presenting the children's program, Saturday Disney. She held the role for five years before she was approached to join the reporting team at The Great Outdoors in 2002. Since then, Shelley has travelled extensively throughout the world visiting 21 countries over seven continents.

A keen sportswoman, Shelley helped cover the 2000 Olympics as part of the Sunrise team and in 2002, travelled to Salt Lake City to cover the 1998 Winter Olympics. Shelley was also part of the commentary team at the World Aerial Championships in Mt Buller from 2002 to 2004.

Outside of sports and travel reporting, Shelley was co host of Carols in the Domain in 2006 with Grant Denyer and has hosted other TV series, including: Guinness World Records and Perfect Match. Shelley also takes pride in her involvement in community projects. She was the Planet Ark ambassador for Cartridge recycling and also for National Tree Day. Shelley is an ambassador for Lifeline.

Shelley Craft is in regular demand for corporate hosting and presentation work. She presented the L'Oréal Paris, Face that Stops the Nation promotion at the Melbourne Cup, and has presented national advertising campaigns for companies including Jetstar, Macleans and Olay.

Client Testimonials

WOW - Shelley has a brilliant on stage presence and the audience loved her. We highly recommend her.

Coca-Cola Amatil

Wow – a week out and we are still receiving great comments regarding Shelley. She was gracious regarding every request made of her and carried out all of her duties (and more) with a beautiful smile.

Conventional Wisdom

Shelley was absolutely fantastic as MC at the Conference. Her summaries of the key note speakers were outstanding. Many thanks for this shining light in an otherwise somewhat conservative conference.
