

Sophie Monk

Media personality, television and radio presenter, singer, actress, model

Sophie Monk is a talented radio and television presenter, a successful musician, an internationally recognised actress and a budding television producer. Refreshingly down-to-earth and a self-confessed "dork", she is also an exceptional host and MC, who connects instantly with audiences and keeps events flowing, even when under the most intense pressure.

More about Sophie Monk:

Sophie Monk rose to prominence as a member of the girl group Bardot after success in the Australian reality television series Popstars. Bardot became the first Australian act to debut at the No. 1 position with both their debut single Poison and self-titled debut album.

In 2005, Sophie relocated to LA to focus further upon her acting. She quickly found her feet in Hollywood, and appeared in films such as Date Movie (2006), Click (2006) and Spring Breakdown (2009). Sophie also made her American television debut with a role in the HBO series Entourage.

Sophie Monk was declared the winner of the fourth season of The Celebrity Apprentice Australia in 2015 and in 2016 was a judge on Australia's Got Talent. A natural beauty, in 2017 she was announced as the new Bachelorette. Her selection for the show met with widespread excitement and approval. The premiere of the show averaged 952,000 viewers with another 269,000 tuning in across regional areas for a national average of 1.22 million.

Sophie Monk partnered with Nine to host the Australian season of Love Island, the UK's most talked about TV show. She has also worked on creating her own international travel show via her production company: Lazy Susan Productions.

With her warm, friendly approach and quick wit, Sophie has endeared herself to the Australian public as a host on 2Day FM and as a regular fixture on KIIS 1065.

Sophie Monk is a proud supporter of the Daniel Morcombe Foundation.
