

Tony Christiansen

Inspirational & Motivational Speaker

Tony Christiansen is a world-class motivational speaker, bestselling author, and accomplished athlete who has inspired audiences across the globe. Having lost both legs in a tragic train accident at the age of nine, Tony has never allowed his disability to define or limit him. Instead, he has lived a life full of extraordinary achievement — from scaling Mt

Kilimanjaro, to racing cars, diving, surfing, and representing New Zealand in international sporting events.

Tony's story is one of courage, humour, and determination. His powerful presentations challenge audiences to break through their own barriers, embrace change, and reach their full potential. Engaging and uplifting, he demonstrates by example that attitude is everything.

Whether addressing corporate leaders, community groups, or international conferences, Tony Christiansen leaves audiences entertained, motivated, and empowered to take on life's challenges with confidence.

Testimonials

- "Tony's presentation was fantastic. He is a remarkable man and his stories have a way of touching everyone who has the privilege to hear him.
- New Zealand Drag Racing Association
- "Thank you for sharing your inspirational anecdotes and to motivate everyone that with determination and believing in yourself we can achieve anything and that the sky is the limit. I really want to thank Tony for the most inspiring speech and I'm sure that the messages he gave will last with us for a very long time.
- Singapore Parliament
- Tony demonstrates success as a mindset that depends on your attitude. His achievements and the way he tells his story inspires his audience with a level of humour that only someone with Tony's background can elude to. As a motivational speaker, I truly don't know anyone better.
