

Scott Williams

Acclaimed comic, must have MC & insightful keynote

Scott Williams is one of a kind. Best known as “The Doctor”, Scott presents deliciously funny, finely tuned keynote presentations and comedic performances that are loaded with laughter.

As a comedian, Scott draws on life, with specific characters, experts or visiting dignitaries to convey client objectives. Livening up conferences and events, Scott draws the audience in and leaves them grinning from ear to ear.

As a master of ceremonies, Scott breathes new life into the role, handling all situations, expected and otherwise with effortless style. A “must have” for any event, conference organisers have been known to reorganize dates in order to procure Scott’s highly sought-after services.

As a key-note speaker Scott is strong, high-spirited, thought provoking and crackling with originality. Delivering a refreshingly positive approach to today’s world, Scott leaves audiences wanting more.

Funny, energetic, original and unpredictable, Scott’s impressive client list includes Qantas, Schwarzkopf, ANZ, Microsoft, BP, Lend Lease, AMP, Telstra, Toyota and McDonalds.

Scott Williams keynote presentation:

Business Fundamentals - In this unique and timely keynote Scott Williams explores the laughter dynamic and how this vastly under utilized resource can transform lives, and organisations. The presentation shows us how to break down some of the laughter limiting behaviours we develop on the road to adulthood. Importantly, Scott reminds us that a sense of humour is as vital to our mental wellbeing as breathing is to our physical wellbeing.
