

Yamini Naidu

Consummate business storyteller

Yamini Naidu is the world's only economist turned business Storyteller and she is consistently voted among the top business storytellers globally. She co-founded Australia's first storytelling company. Her work with clients is commercially savvy, results driven and sets them up for professional success. As a key note speaker, Yamini wows audiences all over the world with insights, inspiration and actionable advice.

Yamini is a best selling author of 5 books including her latest - Story Mastery: How leaders supercharge results with storytelling. As a Certified Speaking Professional, Yamini partners with business leaders to achieve results - results that leave leaders, the people who work with them, and the world a better place.

She is committed to social enterprise and supports through pro bono work the High Resolves Global Citizenship and Leadership Programs which offer a three-year transformational experience for high school students in Years 8 to 10. She supports and is working with Pollinate Energy, a not for profit focused on energy access for poor people living in urban India.

Yamini Naidu talks about:

Yamini's presentations are completely tailored to your specific audience and business issues and she works with clients in a variety of ways including:

- Virtual presentation skills workshops
- Business storytelling training
- Inspiring presenters - Rock your next presentation

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 