

Alex Cullen

Host, MC Presenter, Keynote Speaker and Journalist

Alex Cullen has been a news and sports journalist for over 20 years covering major events across the globe including the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, Japan tsunami disaster and the Christchurch earthquake as well as interviewing world renowned superstars including Olivia Newton-John, Ricky Gervais and Jon Bon Jovi.

Alex's career spans radio and television working for various networks including Seven and Nine hosting programs like Sunday Night and the Today Show.

Alex is an experienced MC and moderator helming events like the Brisbane 2032 Legacy Forum, the NSW Farmers Association Future of Farming Forum and various sporting and corporate events for Panthers

Group, Parramatta Eels, the Cadbury Wallabies, and other corporate partners.

Alex grew up on a farm near Coonamble in regional New South Wales and is passionate about issues affecting regional Australia.

Testimonials

- "Alex brought such a fantastic and genuine energy to the day and I have had many people comment on what a great job he did. We were very lucky to have him as part of the day as he was a key contributor to its success.
- Legacy Department of Tourism, Innovation and Sport
- "On stage, Alex truly shines. Despite the challenges of managing a rowdy room, he captivates the audience effortlessly, holding their attention. His respect for our partners is evident, understanding that they play a vital role in the Panthers' success. Without a doubt, Alex's contributions enhance the overall atmosphere and elevate our corporate hospitality to new heights.

- Panthers Rugby League Academy - Partnerships Administrator

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 3