

Luke Kennedy

Motivational Speaker, Author and Mental Health Advocate

Building resilience, overcoming negative beliefs, getting the spark back for life and job roles, and connecting better in relationships for stronger collaborations.

Luke Kennedy is Australia's most sought after Motivational Speaker, International Best Selling Author, Successful Business Owner, State Champion Boxer, Mental Health Advocate, and Mentor to Troubled Youth.

His journey from addiction, crime, and self-destruction to success, resilience, and purpose is one of remarkable transformation. Once trapped in a cycle of drugs, violence, and self-sabotage, where he was stabbed twice and faced death multiple times. Luke turned his life around through an unshakable commitment to personal growth and radical ownership. His journey to becoming a motivational speaker is one of remarkable transformation.

Now, he shares his raw, emotional, and deeply relatable story to inspire audiences of all ages and backgrounds—whether it's students, educators, business leaders, parents, prisoners, or corporate teams.

After turning his life around through an unwavering pursuit of personal development and mindset shifts, Luke became a successful business owner, bestselling author, mentor to troubled youth, and one of the most requested motivational speakers. Being on the streets for many years and now working with big organisations has given him the opportunity to get to know a broad range of people and see what works and a lot of what doesn't work.

Luke's message resonates powerfully across all demographics. He has a unique ability to make audiences laugh, cry, reflect, and take action – a skill that has earned him praise from corporate leaders, educators and students.
