

Dr Katherine Hunt

Leader in Financial Services Ethics

Dr Katherine Hunt combines her expertise in ethics with her passion for psychology to lead global growth projects with real world impact.

Katherine is Australia's most engaging speaker on Ethics, and is an ethics expert, having built Masters courses on the topic, and authored textbooks and research papers on ethics.

Katherine has authored textbooks "Everyday Ethics for Financial Advisers", and "Ethics in Banking and Finance".

She has experience working as a financial planner with Aspire Financial Planning, and Katherine holds a PhD in "The Law and Economics of Microfinance" from Erasmus University of Rotterdam, University of Hamburg, and the University of Bologna.

Katherine has a strategic view of important issues, granted by a Bachelor of Psychological Science, alongside her Bachelor of Commerce and First Class Honours in Finance. The author of dozens of peer-reviewed academic journal articles, textbooks, and book chapters, Katherine leads through example in her quest to share knowledge and help practices grow through smart psychology.

Katherine's focus is in helping practices achieve the ethical growth they are looking for. Katherine has undertaken field research in places such as Pakistan, Bhutan and Nicaragua, has visited over 70 countries, and surfed in more than 20.
