

Scott Reardon OAM

Australian Paralympic Sprinter and Water Skier, Resilience & Workplace Safety Speaker

Scott Reardon is a highly sought-after keynote speaker and workshop facilitator, specialising in resilience and workplace safety. As a Paralympian, he has overcome a whirlwind of challenges, allowing him to succeed in his athletic career. Scott now takes his experiences and gained knowledge to share with others worldwide.

At the age of 12, Scott suffered from a devastating farm accident that resulted in the loss of his right leg. While this event was life-altering, he didn't let that end his dream and refused to let it define who he was. As Scott worked tirelessly to overcome his injury, he found success internationally by becoming one of the top Paralympic sprinters in the world.

Scott's workshops and speeches uniquely blend inspiration and practical skills, showing his passion for sports and personal development. He draws on his experiences as a Paralympian and highlights the importance of resilience, perseverance, and mental toughness in adversity. In addition, Scott does not limit himself in his knowledge. He shows how the same principles can be applied in the workplace - this helps individuals and organisations overcome obstacles and achieve their desired outcomes.

Scott has a reputation for delivering inspiring and stimulating presentations, evidently through his characteristics as an engaging and dynamic speaker. His workshops are interactive through exercises and display real-life examples to help the participants develop skills to build their resilience and success in the workplace.

Look towards Scott Reardon for a keynote speaker who will provide an unforgettable experience of an inspirational and educational workshop.
