

Sarah Grynberg

Mindset Coach, Speaker and Podcast Host

A keynote speaker and mindset coach, trusted by leading businesses, elite athletes, and high-performing individuals to transform mental roadblocks into clarity, confidence, and lasting success. Sarah Grynberg has delivered powerful keynotes for major brands and organisations including Business Chicks, Kailo & Goop, YPO, Seeker Agency, and leading media and corporate groups across Australia.

Sarah is known for creating deep connections, sharing practical mindset strategies, and leaving audiences and businesses not only inspired to act but equipped with tools and insights to make real, lasting changes in their lives.

As an in-demand mindset coach, Sarah works closely with professional athletes, executives, and business owners to help them overcome rumination, self-doubt, and unhelpful thinking. Using science-backed tools and proven daily practices, she empowers individuals and teams to reclaim their focus, energy, and emotional resilience, especially during times of stress, burnout, or transition.

She is also the creator and host of A Life of Greatness, one of Australia's most successful lifestyle podcasts, where she has interviewed some of the world's leading minds including Matthew McConaughey, Geena Davis, Andrew Huberman, Mel Robbins, Simon Sinek, Deepak Chopra, Esther Perel, and Daniel Ricciardo. With millions of listeners and a loyal following, her platform reaches people across industries who are ready to think differently and lead with purpose.

An exceptional facilitator with a rare ability to guide meaningful, engaging conversations on stage. She has toured nationally with high-profile guests, leading powerful, sold-out Q&A experiences that leave audiences deeply inspired.

Sarah's bestselling book, Living a Life of Greatness, captures her most powerful insights and offers a clear roadmap for overcoming overwhelm and creating a life filled with clarity and meaning.

With her calm presence, practical wisdom, and emotionally intelligent delivery, Sarah brings not just a talk, but a transformational experience.
