

Monika Tu OAM

Visionary Leader, Luxury Real Estate Pioneer, Philanthropist

One of Australia's most influential and respected business figures, Monika Tu OAM is celebrated globally for her visionary leadership, entrepreneurial spirit, and philanthropic impact.

As the founder and director of Black Diamondz Group, Monika has carved an unparalleled niche in luxury real estate, building an empire that serves high-net-worth clients from across the globe—including celebrities, business magnates, and international royalty. Her company specialises in premium property sales and bespoke lifestyle services, catering to discerning clients seeking exceptional homes in Australia.

A charismatic and dynamic leader, Monika's remarkable journey began after immigrating to Australia from China. She first found success in the consumer electronics industry, but it was her passion for luxury real estate—paired with her deep understanding of international cultural nuances—that set her apart. Her ability to bridge Eastern and Western business practices has made her a powerhouse in the global market, often credited with reshaping the perception of luxury property in Australia.

Monika's influence extends well beyond the boardroom. A recognised media personality, she regularly appears on television, industry panels, and in international publications. Her unique blend of business acumen and personal style has earned her a loyal social media following, where she inspires millions with her insights on success, leadership, and living with purpose.

Beyond her business achievements, Monika is deeply committed to philanthropy. She is a passionate advocate for children's health, the arts, and women's empowerment. As an Ambassador for the Sydney Children's Hospital Foundation and Children's Cancer Institute, she plays a key role in raising millions for critical research and care. She also contributes significantly to the Museum of Contemporary Art, helping to fund programs that ensure wider access to the arts.

In recognition of her exceptional contributions to the community, Monika was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia in June 2025 for her philanthropic endeavours.

Monika Tu's story is one of resilience, vision, and a relentless pursuit of excellence. As a trailblazing woman in business, a global influencer, and a dedicated philanthropist, she continues to break barriers and leave a lasting legacy on both the Australian and international stage.

Speaking Topics

- From migrant to self-made millionaire: harnessing the power of the Asian consumer
- How to build a commercially successful business with philanthropy as a core value
- Resilience
- Entrepreneurship
- Women in Business
- Foreign investment
- Purpose and vision

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 