

James Lush

Broadcaster, MC and Facilitator

James Lush is the 'go-to' presenter for all the programmes on ABC Radio in Western Australia. As well as presenting his weekly Saturday Breakfast show, James also presents other shows when the presenters are away - often filling in with just a few hours' notice. In the past few years James has presented almost every show on 720 ABC at least once!

Before moving to Australia in 2004, James presented live news programs on National BBC Radio 5 Live. James also worked for BBC TV and ITV as a reporter and presenter.

James now MCs and facilitates major events across WA.

His incisive interview technique brings the best out of key speakers, giving audiences a greater insight into the character in question.

James has been the MC for events including the Gala Dinner at the Diggers and Dealers Conference and The Leadership Forum for the Chamber of Commerce (Kim Beasley, Kevin Sheedy and Sam Walsh). His clients in WA also include the Institute of Management, Institute of Company Directors and the Property Council.

In his spare time, James Lush is also a media and communication consultant. He specialises in communication strategies that connect with the audience.
