

Oliver Peterson

Radio Presenter, Journalist & MC

A prominent radio presenter, journalist, and broadcaster known for his engaging style and incisive commentary. Oliver has become a trusted voice on 6PR, where he hosts a popular current affairs program that covers a broad range of topics from local news and politics to human interest stories.

With a passion for giving voice to the issues that matter most to the people of Western Australia, Oliver brings a unique perspective to his show. His deep knowledge of local affairs and ability to tackle complex subjects with clarity has made him a respected figure in the industry.

Throughout his career, Oliver has earned a reputation for his strong interview skills and his capacity to foster informed and meaningful conversations. He has interviewed a wide range of public figures, from politicians and business leaders to community advocates, always striving to provide listeners with up-to-date, relevant information.

Whether he's delving into the intricacies of state policy or discussing the latest local developments, Oliver's commitment to insightful, unbiased reporting has solidified his position as one of Perth's leading radio personalities.

He is also an exceptionally accomplished and experienced MC, known for his great rapport and his ability to consistently deliver, regardless of the task. He is a regular host for major corporate and sporting events.

When he's not on air, Oliver enjoys engaging with his audience through social media and community events, maintaining a strong connection with the people he serves.

Testimonials

“ He is highly professional, entertaining and very likeable. The AHA has worked with Oliver on numerous occasions as Master of Ceremonies at our various awards evenings throughout the year.

- Australian Hotels Association (WA)

“ Oliver is an engaging, entertaining and informative ground announcer. He has executed with great success MC duties at Qantas Wallabies matches at both Subiaco Oval and NIB Stadium for international rugby over a number of years. Oliver is always prepared when coming into an event, having done his own research prior, which in turn, enhances the Sport Presentation program. He is always energetic and takes direction well on all events.

- Great Big Events

“ Oliver has become the match day 'voice' of South Sydney when the Rabbitohs come to Perth each year to host a home game at nib Stadium. He is a professional ensuring he is fully prepared and does his research before the game and the result in his performance is first class. The club would highly recommend Oliver to anyone looking for a Ground Announcer or MC at their events.

- South Sydney Rabbitohs

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 