

Eva Milic

Television Presenter & MC

Eva Milic is the weekday presenter and reporter of Channel Nine Queensland's Nine News.

Eva is also a sought after MC and in 2001, was crowned Miss World Australia. She competed for the Miss World title in South Africa where she was fortunate enough to meet Nelson Mandela.

Eva Milic launched her career in television as a freelancer with Nine Gold Coast News in January 2004. In 2006, she was appointed as a full-time weather presenter while also reporting on local stories as part of the News team.

In 2008 Eva Milic moved to the Brisbane News team to present the weekend bulletin before taking on the role of weather presenter in June 2009. She later returned to Nine Gold Coast where she was at the helm of the news desk for two years before returning to Brisbane once again as the weekend weather presenter in 2010. Eva was later appointed by Channel Nine Queensland as the Nine news weekday presenter and reporter.

Eva Milic completed a Bachelor of Business degree in 2001 after graduating from St Michael's College on the Gold Coast and in 2005, graduated from Griffith University with Masters in Journalism and Mass Communication.

Eva Milic and husband Marcus are parents to Lucia and Gabriella.

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE

