

Darren Berry

Former Victorian Cricket Captain, Coach and Inspiring Speaker

From humble beginnings Darren Berry climbed to the top of his sport representing Australia in the 1997 Ashes Cricket Series in the UK.

In a highly successful playing career spanning 15 years behind the stumps for Victoria, breaking all statistical records and captaining his state to the Sheffield Shield title in his final game on the MCG in 2003/04. It was a tumultuous year with the tragic death of coach David Hookes. It was described as a season of tragedy to triumph!

around the world. Initially as Head Coach of South Australia & Adelaide Strikers BBL to winning titles in both the IPL & PSL alongside his close friends Shane Warne & Dean Jones.

Darren is available for both sporting club functions and corporate presentations where his amazing journey will both enlighten and inspire your audience.

- Excellent. Darren Berry was a very interesting and amusing speaker who kept the audience well entertained for almost an hour. Feedback from many who attended has been very positive. Great job!!
