

Andrew Embley

Former West Coast Eagles Premiership Player

Playing fifteen seasons with the West Coast Eagles, Andrew Embly was one of their highest profile and most respected players until his retirement at the end of 2013.

Commencing his football career with the Swan Districts Football Club in the WAFL, Andrew was then recruited by the West Coast Eagles in the 1998 National Draft. Making his debut in the next seson, Andrew quickly established himself as a key player and ideal wingman.

Between 2004 to 2007, he served as Vice Captain of the club, working with his team to ensure they were the best they could be. In 2006, Andrew played an integral part in the West Coast Eagles victory at the Grand Finals, and he was awarded a Norm Smith Medal as Best Player on the Ground.

Aside from football, Andrew's passion for food has seen him host his own degustation nights, which are a success with fans and corporate clients alike.

Testimonials

I just wanted to say a personal thanks for all the effort you put into your recent presentation for our dinner. The feedback I received was excellent. You touched on all the points we discussed beforehand and lots of guests commented on how approachable and personable you were. I'd be happy to recommend you as a speaker to anyone in the future.
