

Dilruk Jayasinha

Award Winning Comedian & Corporate Entertainer

Dilruk Jayasinha is one of Australia's most beloved and sought-after comedians, known for his warm, relatable, and highly engaging style of stand-up comedy. Originally from Sri Lanka, Dilruk moved to Melbourne to pursue a degree in accounting. After working for one of the "Big Four" accounting firms, he made a lifechanging decision to pursue comedy full-time after a performance at an open mic night in 2010.

Since then, Dilruk has become a standout figure in Australian entertainment. His comedy—effervescent, personal, and often introspective—offers audiences a humorous glimpse into his own life. Whether he's reflecting on his cultural background, his experiences navigating life in Australia, or his quirky take on everyday situations, Dilruk's performances resonate with audiences from all walks of life.

A regular on Australian television and radio, Dilruk has appeared on popular shows including Utopia, MasterChef Australia, I'm A Celebrity Get Me Out of Here, Spicks & Specks, and Have You Been Paying Attention?, among others. He has also performed stand-up on prestigious stages such as the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Gala and Just For Laughs.

Dilruk's work extends beyond television and live performances; in 2018, he received the Graham Kennedy Award for Most Popular New Talent at the TV Week Logie Awards, one of the highest honors in Australian entertainment. His stand-up special, Dilruk Jayasinha: I Can't Feel My Face, is available worldwide on Prime Video, further cementing his reputation as one of Australia's top comedic talents.

With his infectious energy, sharp wit, and ability to connect with diverse audiences, Dilruk continues to be a favorite on the Australian comedy circuit and an international rising star.
