

Dale Burridge

Internationally acclaimed concert and corporate entertainer

Dale Burridge is one of Australia's most successful concert and corporate entertainers having starred in numerous musicals, concerts and corporate events all over the world.

He first tread the boards professionally back in the 1980's as 'Rolf' in Britain's renowned West End Production of The Sound of Music.

Dale returned to Australia in 1989, to create the role of Alan Courtney in Seven Little Australians and then featured in the 1989 production of Anything Goes. Dale had long association with Les Miserables before joining the cast in the role of Raoul, opposite Marina Prior, in the original Australian production of Phantom of the Opera. He played the role for two years and the following season, appeared as young Scrooge, opposite Keith Michelle in the 1994 premier Australian production of Scrooge - the Musical.

At this time Dale began performing in numerous concert performances throughout Australia and with Marina Prior at the Sydney Opera House. Engagements at the Melbourne Concert Hall included An Evening with Fred and Ginger with Rhonda Burchmore, from Brigadoon to Broadway with the Australian Pops Orchestra and the 1994 Morning Melodies Christmas concert. Dale has made constant appearances on Australia's various television variety shows, and is a regular performer on Bert Newton's Good Morning Australia. Dale has also performed as the featured artist on the QE2 cruise liner, performing for their international guests.

Dale returned to his role in the Phantom of the Opera before embarking on the International 1996 tour of Les Miserables in the role of the student leader, Enjolras.

Dale has been guest performer at major launches, conventions, and special events all over Australia and Asia. In 1997 he was the guest performer at the Darling Harbour Christmas Concert and Australia Day Concert. He has appeared as the guest artist with the Canberra Symphony Orchestra in A Night In Tuscany, with the Tasmania Symphony Orchestra, the Queensland Symphony Orchestra in a special Gershwin Concert series with Maestro Tommy Tycho, and on a Wiggles film.

Dale Burrige performs:

Class Act - Dale Burrige makes use of his diverse vocal talents to bring the WOW factor to your corporate event during an intimate evening of magical entertainment in which he performs some of the world's most famous songs.

Music of the Day - The original stars of the Premier Australian Production of Andrew Lloyd Webber's, The Phantom of the Opera, Dale Burrige and Danielle Everett, will take you on a journey. From Puccini to Lloyd Webber, soaring vocals, stunning gowns and spectacular spine tingling moments combine in this audience interactive corporate concert that will leave the audience begging for more!

Client testimonials

“ In over 10 years organising this group I have never seen them give anyone a standing ovation...they gave Dale two! He was absolutely fabulous!!!

- Broad Marketing

“ Absolutely amazing voice - One of Australia's finest performers...and a load of fun after the show.

- Richard Wilkins

“ Dale Burrige is sensational. A voice that sends chills up your spine. World class talent in our own backyard.

- Kevin Jacobsen OAM

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE

VIDEO OF SPEAKER

