

Nikki Bennett

Themed Entertainment

Described as electrifying, critics and audiences unanimously agree, Nikki Bennett is a fabulous entertainer.

In unprecedented demand for corporate performances worldwide, Nikki and her sensational dancers present eleven beautifully themed shows, including Chicago, James Bond and Moulin Rouge.

In 1997 Nikki was chosen by SOCOG to represent Sydney to international delegates. In 2001 she was hand picked to perform at Russell Crowe's New Years Eve Party and in 2002 she was flown to The World Cup in Seoul, where she opened the Queens Golden Jubilee celebrations.

In between, Nikki's stunning cabaret show has taken her to Italy, France, Russia, China, India, South America, South East Asia, New Zealand and throughout Australia.

Nominated five times by the Australian Entertainment (MO) Awards as Female Vocal Variety Performer of the Year, Nikki has appeared on almost every national Australian television variety show and in 2001 starred in the Dreamworks feature film Walk The Talk.

Client testimonials
