

Bob Downe (Mark Trevorrow)

Journalist, Comedian, Actor and Broadcaster

Mark Trevorrow is a comedian, actor, broadcaster and journalist.

He had huge success with his cabaret group, The Globos before creating, the character Bob Downe. One of Australia's most loved and enduring comedy characters, Mark He has toured the world as Bob Downe, the Prince of Polyester ever since.

Bob's stage shows have played to acclaim at the Edinburgh Fringe, Adelaide Cabaret Festival and the Melbourne International Comedy Festival, with decades of touring across Australia and the UK including P&O Comedy Cruises and performing for the Queen at the Royal Variety Performance.

Bob's TV appearances range from Countdown to The Project, from the Mike Walsh Show to Studio 10, and hosting multiple Sydney Mardi Gras broadcasts.

As Mark he has been heard regularly on ABC local radio and presented The Way We Were, a ratings winner on ABC TV in 2004. He is also featured regularly on Kath & Kim as 'Darryl' the menswear salesman.

Bob Downe performs as:

Client testimonials

“ The Entertainer (Mark) ad-libbed jokes, audience interaction, belting vocals, zany dance steps, tender ballads and name-dropping anecdotes all jostled each other, hustling away any chance of a dull momentWhether serious or madcap, almost every line was delivered direct to the eyes of an audience member, yet Trevorrow's innate likeability allowed him to do this without any sense of confrontation.

- John Shand, Sydney Morning Herald

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 