Client testimonials

“ Ben came in as a bumbling English Nurseryman and confused the life out of the professionals in the industry. He even managed to get them asking questions before revealing his true identity. He has his characters down to perfection. He was excellent!

- Bistech Pty Ltd (Brisbane)

“ Ben was very funny and the research he did on our industry was very good. I would recommend him.

- Audi

“ At first as we came around the corner we actually thought it was Matt Preston standing there. The makeup, voice, gestures were all so spot on! Matt....I mean Ben would have no problems fooling a crowd that he was there as a special guest judge at any conference. We've now seen Ben as Dr Phil, Borat (personal favourite), Arnie and now Matt Preston and it still amazes us how he is the one person under all of these terrific characters!

In the 6 years I've been organising the event, I have never had so many people so happy with the choice of entertainer. All I can say is that he was brilliant and I wish him every success.
