Sensational corporate talent show

Throughout the evening, six predetermined 'talent acts' chosen from amongst the attendees have to perform their act in front of the other audience members and be judged with the assistance of a pair of very funny MCs.

All the performances e.g. best air guitar solo, singing a section of karaoke, joining in a set dance routine etc. are impromptu, guided by the MCs and require no rehearsal.

The MCs are Donald Mackee and Robi Mack. Donald is a multi-talented performer, entertainment producer, director, writer, comedian and actor with over 25 years of full-time professional experience. He is also a world-class MC who is an expert in designing the audience's experience and engagement at conferences and events and has done live performances for over one million people.

Robi is a talented performer, singer, comedian, TV presenter and keynote speaker who has performed at thousands of events solo and with Donald. “ From the time the initial meeting was booked there was an anticipated excitement of what was to be presented for our National Sales & Education Conference. The brief was to produce entertainment for our awards dinner and provide facilitation for a segment of the conference. ‘De Lorenzo’s Got Talent’ was outstanding, not only in the slick and professional manner it was presented but the totally engaging way Donald & Robi got everyone in the room involved in it. From Air Guitar to Duets and Boy and Girl bands the whole evening was rocking. We are still talking about it 3 weeks later. This is our second Sales Conference with these two dynamic people and it will not be the last! Thanks a million!

“ Just a quick note to sincerely thank you for the sensational show on Saturday night - certainly you and the team put on one hell of a show! Feedback from those attending the dinner was extremely positive, particularly as your repertoire blended so well with the night’s theme. Hopefully we will have the opportunity to work together again in the future. So from all at Jim's, a sincere thank you for a job very well done.

“ The offsite feedback forms confirmed our perceptions - in response to the question “Did this night improve the overall enjoyment and quality of this event” - 90% of attendees gave the top response of ‘Strongly Agree.’ This was the highest rating of any aspect of the Offsite -including guest presenters, team building activity, and venue.

“ They were extremely professional, very easy to deal with, very clever. And funny. There were delegates who told me on the evening they hadn't laughed so much in a long time. They were very sensitive on a corporate level and they involved senior key Directors in an activity, which worked brilliantly. I couldn't recommend them more highly. They were perfect for the evening.
