

String Angels

World class string players with an explosive show

String Angels is a dynamic, sophisticated act that brings the classics into the twenty-first century with style and excitement!

Three world class string players explode onto the stage with their vibrant pink electric violins, in a stunning show designed to fit perfectly within the flow of your function. You and your guests have never seen or heard classical music like this before!

These virtuoso string players look fabulous and totally engage the audience by playing amongst the guests.

This masterful, highly audience-interactive show is energetic, user friendly and can be easily customized to suit the occasion.

With performances tailored to run from five to 30 minutes, the String Angels also provide the option of a Musical director to orchestrate any specific musical pieces required.

String Angels Shows to Choose From:

Whether they are the featured entertainment at your event, or are called on to brilliantly punctuate its opening or close, the Angels add a level of excitement and sophistication that has to be seen to be believed!

- Option 1. - Featured Act- 25 minutes
The girls burst onto the stage bringing classical music to life with choreographed steps, interaction with the audience and sheer virtuosic brilliance!
- Option 2. - High Impact Opener/ Closer- 5 minutes
A High Impact Opener/ Closer is the perfect way to get your guests seated or put a finishing cap on your event.
- Option 3. - Combination of the above
A great way to spread the entertainment over the whole evening, two featured acts will keep your guests wanting more! Please contact us to design a show for your event.

A show designed to elegantly enhance your event, String Angels is pure style - these immaculately presented, experienced young performers play a wide ranging, crowd-pleasing repertoire. String Angels requires a minimum of production: the Angels bring their own high-quality backing tracks and violins. Simply add three spotlights to take advantage of the Angels' stunning visual impact...

The famous classical songs you know and love get a contemporary twist alongside some great rock anthems - and the Angels' virtuoso live playing will blow you away!

Another great act from the creators of The Three Waiters, String Angels is a highly entertaining show loved by audiences from Venice to Vegas, from Sydney to Dubai and Brazil.

Client testimonials

“ The String Angels captivated the audience immediately and got the night off to an energetic exciting start.

- Five Chefs Dinner Committee

“ Their music and the performance speak for themselves. From an event management point-of-view they were a delight to work with friendly, professional and above all (which you need to be on these occasions) very flexible.

- Eventuality

“ The Angels were fantastic and a highlight of our event. The performance ignited the room and set the right mood

- Law Society of NSW

“ The String Angels delivered spectacular performances

- C Management Services

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE

