More about Kate Langbroek:

Kate Langbroek is one of Australia's most beloved media personalities. Her ferocious wit, playfulness and irreverence have made her an audience favourite in a career that has spanned prime time television, top-rating breakfast and drivetime radio, acting, scriptwriting and journalism.

Kate first came to our attention on Triple R in the mid-1990s and then as a regular on The Panel, one of Network Ten's longest-running shows. She went on to guest on other popular shows like Thank God You're Here and Dancing with the Stars.

In 2001 Kate helped catapult start-up radio station Nova 100 to instant ratings success. Along with co-host Dave 'Hughesy' Hughes, Kate continued her stellar radio career on SCA's Hit! Network.

While juggling a frenetic career, marriage and parenthood, Kate and her husband Peter decided to make life even more interesting by packing up their four kids and moving to Bologna in Italy. The result is Kate's first book release in 2021, Ciao Bella! Six Take Italy.

In 2022, Kate is on the ARN Network broadcasting nationally every weekday on KIIS FM's 3pm Pick-Up, is a regular guest on Channel 10's The Project and will host Channel 9's new series, Grown Up Love.
