

Janine Perrett

Finance and Foreign Affairs Journalist

Janine Perrett is one of Australia's most experienced journalist with a distinguished four decade career spanning newspapers, radio and television.

She began her career at The Australian newspaper in 1979 and during the 1980's worked in London and New York as a foreign correspondent for that paper.

During the 1990's she worked as a television reporter for the Nine Network on the Sunday and Business

Sunday programs. She also founded The Small Business Show and was presenter of that program for its nine year run.

In 2007 she was awarded a Knight fellowship at Stanford University in California for a year.

From 2010 to 2019 she was a presenter on Sky News hosting numerous shows including The Perrett Report and The Friday Show.

In recent years she has written columns for The Sydney Morning Herald and Crikey, and been a regular panelist on various broadcasts.

Most recently she was guest presenter of the ABC's Media Watch program.

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 12

