

Noel Whittaker

Author, Finance and Investment Expert

International bestselling author, finance and investment expert, radio broadcaster, newspaper columnist and public speaker, Noel Whittaker is one of the world's foremost authorities on personal finance.

Noel reaches over three million readers each week through his columns in major Australian newspapers, including The Sydney Morning Herald, Melbourne's The Age, Perth's The Sunday Times and Brisbane's The Sunday Mail. He is a regular contributor to magazines including Australian Doctor and Men's Health, and also broadcasts on over 50 radio stations.

Noel is one of Australia's most successful authors, with 20 bestselling books achieving total worldwide sales of more than two million copies. His first book, Making Money Made Simple, set sales records across the country and was named in The 100 Most Influential Books of the Twentieth Century.

For 30 years, Noel was the Director of Whittaker Macnaught, one of Australia's leading financial advisory companies, with more than two billion dollars under management.

In 1988 Noel was named Australian Investment Planner of the Year and, in 2003, he was awarded the Australian Centenary Medal in recognition of his services to the financial services industry. In 2011 he was made a Member of the Order of Australia for service to the community in raising awareness of personal finance.

He is currently an Adjunct Professor and Executive-in-Residence with the Queensland University of Technology, as well as a committee member advising the Australian Securities and Investment Commission.

Client testimonials

“ Thank you for changing my life since 1992 when I bought your book 'Making Money Made Simple' from a newsagent in country Queensland where I was working at the time. Since then I have a massive library with hundreds of financial and personal development books, CD's, and programs and am enjoying a lifestyle I only dreamed of before. Your book was the catalyst for this. Spoke well to his topic. Understood the brief he was given. Well received by the audience.

- Australian Friendly Societies Association
