

Stuart Gregor

Co-founder of Four Pillars Gin, MC, Keynote and After Dinner Speaker

Stuart Gregor is a small business owner, commentator, company director, industry leader, journalist, gin and wine maker, creative force, auctioneer, MC and selfproclaimed humorist.

Most recently he was the co-founder and Global Trade Director of Four Pillars Gin (2013-2023), Australia's

No.1 craft distilling success story. Renowned world- wide, Four Pillars is now sold in more than 30 markets. Stuart and his co-founders sold out of Four Pillars in July 2023 for an undisclosed sum to drinks giant LION, part of the global Kirin Group. From September 2023, Stuart is drinking alone while he ponders future undertakings and improves his golf handicap.

While under Stuart's decade-long stewardship, Four Pillars was thrice awarded (2019, 2020 and 2023) the world's highest accolade for a gin business, the International Gin Producer of the Year at the International Wine and Spirits Competition in London.

Four Pillars also won multitudinous domestic and international awards including being named Australia's Liquor Brand of the Year, the Global Green Initiative for sustainability, certified Carbon Neutral status, and trophies across three continents.

Stuart was the President of Australian Distillers from 2014-2022 overseeing the phenomenal growth in the Australian distilling community. For the best part of 10 years he was the face of Australian distilling and you can make of that what you will. He was inducted into Australia Distilling's Hall of Fame as inductee Number Six, in 2023.

More about Stuart Gregor

Well before Four Pillars, in 2000 in fact, Stuart created Australia's pre-eminent lifestyle communications business, Liquid Ideas, an award-winning agency that still prospers today. Stuart was the Chair of the Public Relations Council 2012-2014 and was the PR Industry's Leader of the Year in 2014.

Stuart has been involved closely in two of Australia's most innovative and disruptive not-for-profit start- ups - RUOK? Day and OzHarvest, where he sat on the Board for eight years.

To this day Stuart considers himself, above all, a story teller and has written many hundreds of published columns on the matters of food, drink, travel and culture. Over the years he has been a semi-regular presenter and panellist on radio stations 3AW and 2GB as well as TV programs Gruen, The Project and The Morning Show. In late 2023 he began writing a monthly column for ESCAPE, Australia's largest circulation travel publication.

In recent years Stuart has also earned a reputation as an MC, auctioneer, commentator and speaker on the subject of drinks, marketing, small business, leadership, media and what it takes to turn a passionate hobby (drinking) into a viable business career.

Stuart has a Diploma of Wine Marketing (Adelaide University), Masters of Marketing (Melbourne Business School) and is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He has achieved Global Wine and Spirits Trust Level 3 in Wine and Level 2 (with Distinction) in Spirits. He has judged many wine and spirits competitions and in 2024 will be the inaugural Chair of Judges at the Sydney Royal Distilled Spirits Show.

He is also co-owner of the Noosa, Qld-based luxury travel firm Gregor & Lewis, with his sister Melinda. Gregor & Lewis is Australia's pre-eminent luxury cruise specialist.

Stuart is a father of two based in Sydney who follows every code of sport imaginable with a particular love for the Sydney Swans, Eastern Suburbs Roosters, Manchester United, Denver Broncos and the Wallabies.
