

Lulu Hawton

2 Time World Boxing Champion, Mental Health Advocate

Louisa Hawton AKA Bang Bang Lulu, is known for her infectious smile and boundless energy.

Lulu is a world-class athlete and an inspiring role model for people from all walks of life. Proudly embracing her multicultural heritage, Louisa was born in Western Australia, with roots in Philippines, through her mother. Her journey reflects strength, resilience, and the power of diversity.

A two-time world champion in boxing, holding both the WBO and WBC titles in multiple weight divisions, Louisa has achieved success not only in the ring but also in skateboarding, where she ranked 7th at the World Cup. Her fearless pursuit of excellence has taken her across the world, competing against the best in both sports.

Lulu's spirit goes beyond athletics. As the winner of Channel 9's "The Summit," she showcased her determination and resilience by overcoming extreme physical challenges in New Zealand.

An advocate for women and youth, Lulu draws on over 15 years of experience as a facilitator and motivational speaker to inspire others. She passionately encourages people to believe in themselves, explore their potential, and embrace life's limitless possibilities.
