

Bianca Chatfield

Former Australian Netballer, Media Personality & Teacher

As one of the youngest netballers ever to have debuted for the Australian Diamonds at the age of 18, Bianca made a name for herself on the court as one of the toughest defenders in the country and the gold medal winning netballer was soon recognised as one of the most respected leaders in women's sport. Competitive by nature, an optimist at heart, with a true passion for working with people.

A celebrated athlete, winning a World Championship, two Commonwealth Games medals (Gold and Silver), and six premierships with the Melbourne

Phoenix/Melbourne Vixens, Bianca retired as the Vice Captain of the Diamonds and Captain of the Vixens in 2016 and the President of the Australian Netball Players' Association – ready to rest her body, share her experiences and create her next opportunity.

Bianca works across a variety of TV and radio shows including, host and lead caller for the Fox Sports Netball Commentary team, panellist on Offsiders on the ABC and fulfills guest roles on radio including SEN and ABC. Bianca is the host of Centre Court Netball Show and former host of Women's Footy Show on Channel Nine.

Bianca's entrepreneurial spirit has meant she has a variety of accomplishments to her name. A qualified teacher, author, business owner, board director, leadership facilitator, keynote speaker, Fox Sports Host and Commentator, Home renovator, you may have seen her as a contestant on The Block in 2018 (at The Gatwick in St. Kilda) and of course, most importantly, and recently, a Mum.
