

Anna Daniels

Engaging Storyteller & MC

Anna Daniels is multi-talented! She is a writer, presenter, producer and a natural public speaker and MC. Anna is also one of Australia's best storytellers. With a great affinity and love for regional and rural Australia, Anna frequently champions country events and characters, and has presented for Landline on ABC1, and ABC Radio Brisbane. She has lived and worked in London, Darwin, Melbourne, Cairns, and Brisbane.

More about Anna Daniels:

Growing up as one of five children in Rockhampton, the Beef Capital of Australia, Anna's points of difference are her country background, her humour, her relatability and vibrancy, and her ability to hang in there with positivity and hope when times get tough!

With her country background, warmth and refreshing sense of humour, Anna has been entertaining us for several years as a presenter on The Project. From sailing aboard the Queen Mary 2; joining an outback postie on one of Australia's longest mail-runs, to reporting from Beef Week in Rockhampton, and presenting live from The Project desk in Melbourne, Anna's highly entertaining segments have been a hit with both urban and rural audiences.

Graduating with a Bachelor of Journalism from QUT in Brisbane, Anna has written, presented and produced exciting content for some of Australia's and the UK's highest rating programs. In addition to presenting her own stories for The Project, she produced Red Symons' Breakfast Program on ABC Radio Melbourne, presented for the popular Channel 7 travel show Queensland Weekender, and produced the BBC One series John Bishop's Australia, featuring the UK comedian, John Bishop.

With a great passion for comedy, Anna kicked off her presenting career with the ABC, co-winning the network's Comedy Segment of the Year Award for her radio interview with Russell Crowe. She then went on to co-create the ABC's first online comedy series, Tough at the Top, set in Darwin, with Melbourne comedian Anne Edmonds. Winning national comedy awards, the Tough at the Top sketches continue to be a hit on YouTube.

In 2016, Anna's debut novel, Girl in Between, was shortlisted for the Vogel Awards, and was published by Allen & Unwin in 2017. Girl in Between has become one of Australia's bestselling debuts, and has recently been reprinted in Australia, and released by Random House in Germany.

Client testimonials

“ There were so many comments on how great Anna was as our host . She brought such a genuine and positive energy to the production and so much professionalism. Thanks for helping us bring it to life Anna!

- Head of People Development ANZ Domino's Pizza Enterprises - Domino's Pizza Rally 2020

“ Anna Daniels was the perfect person to speak at our event - she was warm, she was funny and she was real. Absolutely fabulous!

- Event Organiser 'Linking Local Ladies' Warwick.

“ Funny and engaging are the two words that come to mind when I think of hearing Anna speak. I've seen Anna share her stories of working as a young radio journalist and presenter and she had the crowd in fits of laughter! Anna connects with her audience and is an absolute delight to have in the room.

- Karen Brook, Director and CEO

“ I engaged Anna Daniels as the guest speaker for our international rural women's day event at Mareeba in 2014. Anna brought her warmth, authenticity and humour to her speech, sharing with the audience both her story, and that of regional Australia. If you want a speaker to connect with anyone in the room, on any topic, Anna is your speaker!

- Julia Telford, Engage and Create Consulting

“ Anna joined the 2015 Outback Trailblazer team as the MC for various functions along the journey, raising money for Angel Flight and bringing cheer to the remote communities. Anna delighted audiences in the small outback communities the Outback Trailblazer visited, sharing her stories of working in the media industry.

- Operations and Innovation Manager at RAPAD - Remote Area Planning and Development Board

“ Anna did a great job as the MC for our Australian Fenestration Design Awards and Gala Dinner in Port Douglas. It was a pleasure meeting her, and we hope to work with her again in the future.

- Fenestration Australia

“ I recently had a fat five star face hurting laugh thanks to the very entertaining Anna Daniels. Her passion for regional Australia and how we're still able to have a good laugh at our quirks was the crescendo of the night cracking a smile from all the hardened day four conference campaigners.

- National Farmers Federation - representing Rural Victoria and Australian Agriculture.
