Actor, MC, Presenter, Auctioneer & Workshops

Peter Mochrie is one of Australia's leading actors and he has enjoyed great success. His career spans over forty years. Peter is a professional and inspirational speaker, conference MC, presenter at workshops, corporate speaker, producer of Fine Films & Profiles, teaches 'The Art of Presenting' and is an Auctioneer.

More about Peter Mochrie:

Peter graduated from NIDA in 1990 and shortly after became a regular tutor. Whilst at NIDA, he developed a course called 'The Art of Presenting' and has taught how to improve your online presentation skills and in front of an audience.

He has been helping organisations and individuals reach their goals by inspiring them to overcome fears of performance, public speaking and improve presentation skills with exceptional results. He aids in the ability to speak with confidence, clear intention, projection, creativity and clearer connection with the recipient.

Peter also helps his clients improve their skills in regard to appraisals, writing scripts, minimising nerves, memory, everyday communication and well-being.

Currently, Peter is working with the executive team at NewsCorp including Vogue Australia, as they embark on a continuing program of Live Forums around Australia.

Peter is continuing his work as an actor and the TV series WHIRLD, is winning awards in every Film Festival it is placed in.

Peter is an independent producer of Fine Films and Profiles and works in association with Mane Collective, a boutique video production company that specialises in creative direction and innovative content across a range of mediums.

Peter also works as an exclusive Auctioneer for McGrath Estate Agents and as a Charity

Auctioneer and performed as an MC at innumerable benefits and Corporate functions.

Peter's corporate work includes clients Westpac, Commonwealth Bank, BMW, Telstra, Mirage, Canon, UNSW, McGrath, Highland Property Agents, The Property Exchange, Richardson & Wrench, Laing & Simmons and Samsung.
