

Troy Benjamin

Award-Winning TV Personality, MC & Keynote Speaker

Troy Benjamin is a powerhouse of charisma, leadership, and resilience, making him one of Australia's most sought-after MCs, keynote speakers, and media personalities. A natural-born communicator, Troy has a gift for bringing warmth and order to any event, effortlessly engaging audiences with his quick wit, charm, and professionalism.

Troy became a household name after winning the first-ever Gordon Ramsay's Food Stars on Channel 9, captivating viewers with his strategic leadership and ability to unite Australians from all walks of life. His exceptional talent and inspiring journey have cemented his reputation as a dynamic force in both business and media.

A highly sought-after Master of Ceremonies (MC), Troy has hosted prestigious events, including the Victorian NAIDOC Awards, Victorian Elders Awards, where he brought energy, insight, and cultural depth to the stage. He is a regular voice on radio nationally, sharing his perspectives on business, leadership, and Indigenous entrepreneurship.

As a keynote speaker, Troy delivers powerful and engaging presentations on resilience, business success, and the art of making something out of nothing. His personal journey—from overcoming adversity to building a nationally recognised brand—resonates deeply with audiences looking for inspiration and actionable insights.

Troy's expertise and professionalism have earned him the trust of Melbourne Airport, Liberty Financial Services and Virgin Airlines, among other major institutions. Whether hosting high-profile corporate events, sporting tournaments, or weddings, Troy creates an inviting, memorable experience that leaves a lasting impact.

Beyond the stage and screen, Troy is the visionary founder of Blak Brews, an award-winning tea company that champions native Australian ingredients. His passion for excellence, storytelling, and connection continues to elevate him as a leader in both the business and entertainment industries.

With an impressive career spanning television, radio, and live events, Troy Benjamin is setting the standard for the next generation of MCs and keynote speakers

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 